

Fun Facts ABOUT CHICKENS

- o Chicken beaks are highly sensitive to touch
- o Chickens have ears that may Tell you the egg color they lay!
- o Chickens Have Finely Tuned Senses
- o Chickens can see long distance and close-up at the same time in different parts of their vision. They can see a broader range of colors than humans
- o They have their own language. Chickens have over 30 unique noises they can produce- all of which are used for different purposes. Their clucks and crows are mostly used to raise the alarm for danger or food!
- o Chickens actually have a fantastic memory.
- o Chickens are omnivores and not just herbivores.
- o Some researchers believe that chickens may have the same intelligence as a two-year-old human.
- o Chickens are closest living relatives of dinosaurs.
- o Chickens can run at 9MPH and can fly for short distances.
- o Chickens do not sweat and enjoy sunbathing and bathing in dirt.
- o Chickens have better color vision than humans and can distinguish between more than 100 faces of their species.
- o Chickens have a profound memory and a complex communication system, and can teach sounds to their chicks while they are still in the egg, starting at day 12!
- o Chickens make friends and have a pecking order.